

"ALL THE WORLD LOVES A LOVER"

Say the "SOON-TO-WEDS"

The President and Mrs. Galt
On bachelorhood have called a halt;
The White House will be trimmed with care
To greet the Presidential pair.
The soon-to-weds are thrilled with glee,
And bubbling with expectancy;
They've gained an added inspiration
From one who's loved by all the Nation.
You, too, may have a home of style
A home to make your life worth while;
Just furnish it our modern way,
And take a year or more to pay.

FRANCE WILL HAVE PLENTY OF COAL FOR WINTER MONTHS

Paris, Dec. 2.—Paris is in no danger of shivering this winter though it will have to pay rather dearly for its warmth. Monsieur Marcel Sembat, Minister of Public Works assures the public that there will be plenty of coal available and supports his views with a few conclusive statistics.

France consumed 86 million tons of coal a year before the war; 30 million tons of it came from Great Britain and 10 million from Belgium and Germany. The latter markets are closed to her now but her consumption has decreased from 80 million to 40 million tons by reason of the German occupation of the industrial regions of the north and east. Her coal production has diminished in the same ratio being 20 million tons as against 40 million tons, so she has to depend on Great Britain and the United States for the 20 million tons that she lacks. The receipts at French ports, which were less than a million tons a month a year ago, rose to 1,800,000 tons in August. Statistics of subsequent receipts are incomplete but it is thought that they exceed two million tons per month, sufficient to meet current needs and accumulate a small surplus.

Coal prices have shown no response to the increased receipts. The best qualities are firm at twenty dollars a ton delivered at domicile while inferior grades and industrial coal bring fifteen dollars a ton. The city gas company profiting from these high prices has supplanted coal with gas in a great many families, furnishing the heaters free of rental.

TELEGRAPHER'S ERROR CAUSES FARMER LOSS

Hamburg, Dec. 3.—Through a most unusual legal ruling, which, in many quarters, is attacked as incorrect, a farmer has been obliged to sell a carload of hay for two marks (50 cents).
He had telegraphed to his would-be customer that the price would be 200 marks, and some employee of the telegraph office lost the two ciphers in handing the message. The astonished customer lost no time in accepting the "2" mark offer.

When the customer declined to pay 200 the case went into court, and the telegram was produced as evidence that only two marks had been asked for the hay. In vain the farmer pleaded that it was through no fault of his that the ciphers had been "lost" in transit." The answer was that he should have spelled out the sum in telegraphing. The supreme court decided that the imperial telegraph office cannot be held responsible for the mistake and that the sale must stand.
